Shannon Ebner, Auto Body Collision, Palazzo Ruspoli in Rome

Shannon Ebner, Auto Body Collision
March 18 - June 27, 2014
Palazzo Ruspoli, Rome

Fondazione Memmo is presenting "Auto Body Collision", an exhibition of work by the American artist Shannon Ebner, which is to be on display at the Palazzo Ruspoli in Rome until 27 June 2014.

This exhibition serves as an opportunity for Ebner to present her latest project, influenced by her artist residency in the Italian capital. Taking collision as its theme, the exhibition explores the result of two or more inanimate objects which, as a result of an isolated incident, exert considerable force on each other. "Auto Body Collision" is curated by Cloé Perrone.

Born in 1971, Shannon Ebner lives and works in Los Angeles. Her work spans the diverse realms of photography, sculpture, architecture and image and is included in many prestigious museum collections, notably that of the MoMA (New York), the Museum of Contemporary Art (Los Angeles) and the Stedelijk Museum (Amsterdam).
